

ABOUT THE ABBASI ISLAMIC CENTRE

The KSIMC of Birmingham is so important to each and every one of us. From cradle to grave this community has always sought to do the utmost for each of us. Whether it is nurturing our fledglings in Madrassah; navigating our youth through careers seminars; hosting majlises to further the teachings of the Ahlul Bayt; keeping us fit through sport; offering praise to the Almighty through Amaal; sharing in our days of great happiness like marriages and births or consoling us in our darkest hours when we lose love ones— this community has served all of us.

In fact this community is so important that on the day of Judgement when we look back on our deeds in life, think how much of the Sawaab we have earned would have come from within the walls of the centre. When we consider throughout our lives how many times we have prayed Jamaat Namaaz, Jummah Prayers, the glorious nights Allah SWT has blessed us for Amaals, our Thursday offering of Dua Kumail and Surah Yasin surely much of what we have done thus far has been recorded within the centre.

Acknowledging how important the centre is enables us to realise just how important its future is to all of us. The Abbasi Islamic Centre presents us all with a massive opportunity to take the community forward. To become a centre that strengthens our physical and mental wellbeing, a centre that strengthens our Eimaan and ensures our children develop a close relationship with Allah SWT and love of those who He loves the most. It is an opportunity to develop the centre into a place that pulls us towards it even closer.

Now is the time to imagine. We have come so far and we are now presented with an amazing opportunity to create an all encompassing centre that meets the physical, emotional and social as well as spiritual needs of our future generations.
