Invitation to engaged couples and couples in their first year of marriage to attend “Marriage by Design” – a pre-marriage course at the Al Abbas Islamic Centre, Birmingham, UK.

The BMMF, (Birmingham matchmaking forum) subcommittee of KSIMC of Birmingham held its first pre marriage course on 19th November 2022 at the Al Abbas Islamic centre, Birmingham.

The couples who attended this one-day course were a mixture of engaged couples and couples in their first year of marriage. The attendees were from different parts of UK.

We had good feedback, and we hope to take the suggestions given on board.

We plan to hold courses twice a year and the next course will be scheduled in the autumn of 2023.

Why should we attend? Please continue reading

Course: This course will focus on topics essential and pertinent to our contemporary period that we live in. Attendance is as a couple – no group work

Needs:

- Discussions with many couples over the years have highlighted that most couples did not have any preparation nor support prior to their marriage.
- In addition, the couples felt that marriages were focused on the wedding preparations, glitz and glamour.

Aims:

- To equip the couples with the necessary tools for a successful marital life
- To keep in touch with the couples after the course to see if they can share more tools with others
- To signpost for further support if required

Objectives:

- To have an open discussion with a scholar
- To highlight values and expectations of each other
- To discuss how different people communicate
- To focus on contemporary issues

Outcomes:

At the end of the course, the attendees will have an introduction to a variety of tools at their disposal that they could develop, refine, and use to ensure a mutual understanding of each other thus designing their own individual marriage.

We hope you will take advantage of this opportunity. All information will be dealt in a confidential and secure manner (where applicable).
